

✱ Select the option that can be used as a one-word substitute for the given phrase:

1. A person who holds beliefs that are contrary to the established doctrines of a religion is called a/an:
 - a. Agnostic
 - b. Heretic
 - c. Atheist
 - d. Apostate

2. A person who falsely claims to possess professional knowledge, skills, or qualifications is called a/an:
 - a. Charlatan
 - b. Dilettante
 - c. Connoisseur
 - d. Virtuoso

3. A person who is excessively concerned with minor details and insists on strict adherence to rules is called a/an:
 - a. Philistine
 - b. Pragmatist
 - c. Pedant
 - d. Optimist

4. A person who dislikes or distrusts humankind in general is called a/an:
 - a. Misogynist
 - b. Misanthrope
 - c. Philanthropist
 - d. Altruist

5. A person who flatters powerful people in order to gain personal advantage is called a/an:
 - a. Egoist
 - b. Sycophant
 - c. Boaster
 - d. Fanatic

6. A person who is habitually quiet and reluctant to speak is described as:
 - a. Loquacious
 - b. Garrulous
 - c. Taciturn
 - d. Voluble

7. A person who deliberately abstains from worldly pleasures and leads a life of self-discipline, especially for religious reasons, is an:
 - a. Hedonist
 - b. Materialist
 - c. Epicurean
 - d. Ascetic

8. A person who regards pleasure as the chief aim of life is a/an:
 - a. Hedonist
 - b. Stoic
 - c. Epicurean
 - d. Altruist

9. A person who endures pain or hardship without complaining is described as:
 - a. Martyr
 - b. Stoic
 - c. Recluse
 - d. Fanatic

10. A person who challenges or attacks established beliefs, customs, or institutions is called an:
 - a. Iconoclast
 - b. Anarchist
 - c. Expatriate
 - d. Conformist

11. A person who has a superficial interest in a subject or activity and engages in it without serious commitment is called a:
 - a. Virtuoso
 - b. Dilettante
 - c. Connoisseur
 - d. Specialist

12. A person who is excessively self-centred and constantly talks about their own importance is an:
 - a. Altruist
 - b. Philanthropist
 - c. Egotist
 - d. Introvert

13. A person who believes that human actions are powerless to change an inevitable outcome is a:
 - a. Fatalist
 - b. Humanist
 - c. Idealist
 - d. Rationalist

14. A person who displays extreme and unquestioning devotion to a cause, ideology, or belief is a:
 - a. Pragmatist
 - b. Skeptic
 - c. Moderate
 - d. Zealot

15. A person who refuses to compromise or change their position is described as:
- Intransigent
 - Pliant
 - Compliant
 - Docile
16. A person who habitually questions or doubts accepted beliefs or claims is a:
- Credulist
 - Skeptic
 - Dogmatist
 - Fanatic
17. A person who is excessively concerned with minor rules, formalities, or academic details is a:
- Pedant
 - Polymath
 - Visionary
 - Innovator
18. A person who acts suddenly and without careful thought is described as:
- Methodical
 - Impulsive
 - Deliberate
 - Circumspect
19. A person who is generous and forgiving, particularly toward a rival or someone who has wronged them, is described as:
- Malevolent
 - Miserly
 - Magnanimous
 - Vindictive
20. A person who gives opinions on subjects outside their area of expertise is called an:
- Polyglot
 - Ultracrepidarian
 - Academician
 - Authority
21. A person who pretends to possess moral qualities or beliefs that they do not actually possess is a:
- Hypocrite
 - Benefactor
 - Altruist
 - Philanthropist

22. A person who is stubborn and refuses to change their opinion despite persuasion is described as:
- Pliant
 - Submissive
 - Yielding
 - Obstinate
23. A person who habitually expects the worst possible outcome is a:
- Pessimist
 - Realist
 - Optimist
 - Idealist
24. A person who has an excessive desire for wealth or money is described as:
- Generous
 - Charitable
 - Avaricious
 - Benevolent
25. A person who deliberately lives away from society and avoids social contact is a:
- Recluse
 - Socialite
 - Extrovert
 - Gregarious person
26. A person who is easily deceived because of excessive trust is:
- Astute
 - Shrewd
 - Skeptical
 - Gullible
27. A person who deliberately displays exaggerated or theatrical behaviour to attract attention is described as:
- Reticent
 - Histrionic
 - Demure
 - Modest
28. A person who deliberately wishes harm or evil to others is:
- Malevolent
 - Benevolent
 - Compassionate
 - Sympathetic

29. A person who approaches problems based on practical considerations rather than ideals is a:
- Visionary
 - Pragmatist
 - Idealist
 - Utopian
30. A person who habitually distrusts the sincerity or motives of others and believes that people are motivated mainly by self-interest is a:
- Altruist
 - Cynic
 - Philanthropist
 - Optimist
31. The study or collection of coins, currency, and medals is called:
- Philately
 - Epigraphy
 - Numismatics
 - Paleography
32. The scientific study of insects is called:
- Entomology
 - Etymology
 - Herpetology
 - Ornithology
33. The study and collection of postage stamps and related postal material is called:
- Numismatics
 - Philately
 - Cartography
 - Cryptography
34. The scientific study of birds is called:
- Ichthyology
 - Mammalogy
 - Ornithology
 - Mycology
35. The branch of zoology concerned with the scientific study of fish is called:
- Ichthyology
 - Malacology
 - Herpetology
 - Entomology

36. The scientific study of fungi is called:
- Phycology
 - Bryology
 - Dendrology
 - Mycology
37. The study of ancient inscriptions, especially those engraved or carved on durable materials, is called:
- Calligraphy
 - Epigraphy
 - Paleography
 - Lexicography
38. The study of ancient and historical handwriting and scripts is called:
- Typography
 - Epigraphy
 - Paleography
 - Lexicography
39. The branch of geology concerned with the study of rock layers and their arrangement is called:
- Mineralogy
 - Petrology
 - Stratigraphy
 - Seismology
40. The scientific study of earthquakes and seismic waves is called:
- Volcanology
 - Petrology
 - Geomorphology
 - Seismology
41. The branch of biology and medicine concerned with the immune system is called:
- Toxicology
 - Immunology
 - Pathology
 - Oncology
42. The branch of medicine concerned with the study and treatment of cancer is called:
- Toxicology
 - Immunology
 - Hematology
 - Oncology
43. The science of creating and analysing codes and ciphers for secure communication is called:
- Cryptography
 - Stenography
 - Typography
 - Cartography

44. The science and practice of making maps is called:
- Cryptography
 - Oceanography
 - Typography
 - Cartography
45. The statistical study of human populations, particularly their size, structure, distribution, and changes, is called:
- Demography
 - Sociology
 - Anthropology
 - Ethnology
46. The scientific study of speech sounds, including their production, transmission, and perception, is called:
- Semantics
 - Syntax
 - Phonetics
 - Etymology
47. The study of the origin and historical development of words is called:
- Phonetics
 - Semantics
 - Entomology
 - Etymology
48. The practice of compiling, writing, and editing dictionaries is called:
- Bibliography
 - Lexicography
 - Calligraphy
 - Historiography
49. The branch of zoology concerned with reptiles and amphibians is called:
- Herpetology
 - Ornithology
 - Mammalogy
 - Ethology
50. The scientific study of human beings, including their biological, cultural, and social development, is called:
- Sociology
 - Archaeology
 - Anthropology
 - Ethnography
51. The branch of medicine concerned with blood, blood-forming organs, and blood disorders is called:
- Nephrology
 - Hematology
 - Cardiology
 - Hepatology

52. The scientific study of animal behaviour, particularly in natural conditions, is called:
- Ethology
 - Ecology
 - Zoology
 - Entomology
53. The branch of science concerned with viruses and viral diseases is called:
- Bacteriology
 - Parasitology
 - Virology
 - Viralogy
54. The branch of medicine concerned with the study and treatment of diseases of the kidneys is called:
- Nephrology
 - Urology
 - Neurology
 - Gastroenterology
55. The study of the distribution, causes, and patterns of diseases and health conditions in populations is called:
- Pharmacology
 - Toxicology
 - Pathology
 - Epidemiology
56. A person who leaves their own country to settle permanently in another is called a/an:
- Immigrant
 - Expatriate
 - Emigrant
 - Refugee
57. The branch of astronomy that applies physics to understand the physical properties, composition, and behaviour of celestial objects is called:
- Astrophysics
 - Cosmology
 - Astrology
 - Aeronautics
58. The branch of astronomy concerned with the origin, evolution, and large-scale structure of the universe is called:
- Astrophysics
 - Planetology
 - Cosmology
 - Astrology

59. The study of mosses, liverworts, and hornworts is called:

- a. Dendrology
- b. Algology
- c. Bryology
- d. Pomology

60. The study of trees and other woody plants is called:

- a. Floriculture
- b. Dendrology
- c. Bryology
- d. Pomology

✱ Select the option that can be used as a one-word substitute for the given phrase:

1. A person who holds beliefs that are contrary to the established doctrines of a religion is called a/an:
 - a. Agnostic
 - b. Heretic
 - c. Atheist
 - d. Apostate
2. A person who falsely claims to possess professional knowledge, skills, or qualifications is called a/an:
 - a. Charlatan
 - b. Dilettante
 - c. Connoisseur
 - d. Virtuoso
3. A person who is excessively concerned with minor details and insists on strict adherence to rules is called a/an:
 - a. Philistine
 - b. Pragmatist
 - c. Pedant
 - d. Optimist
4. A person who dislikes or distrusts humankind in general is called a/an:
 - a. Misogynist
 - b. Misanthrope
 - c. Philanthropist
 - d. Altruist
5. A person who flatters powerful people in order to gain personal advantage is called a/an:
 - a. Egoist
 - b. Sycophant
 - c. Boaster
 - d. Fanatic
6. A person who is habitually quiet and reluctant to speak is described as:
 - a. Loquacious
 - b. Garrulous
 - c. Taciturn
 - d. Voluble
7. A person who deliberately abstains from worldly pleasures and leads a life of self-discipline, especially for religious reasons, is an:
 - a. Hedonist
 - b. Materialist
 - c. Epicurean
 - d. Ascetic
8. A person who regards pleasure as the chief aim of life is a/an:
 - a. Hedonist
 - b. Stoic
 - c. Epicurean
 - d. Altruist

9. A person who endures pain or hardship without complaining is described as:
- a. Martyr
 - b. Stoic
 - c. Recluse
 - d. Fanatic
10. A person who challenges or attacks established beliefs, customs, or institutions is called an:
- a. Iconoclast
 - b. Anarchist
 - c. Expatriate
 - d. Conformist
11. A person who has a superficial interest in a subject or activity and engages in it without serious commitment is called a:
- a. Virtuoso
 - b. Dilettante
 - c. Connoisseur
 - d. Specialist
12. A person who is excessively self-centred and constantly talks about their own importance is an:
- a. Altruist
 - b. Philanthropist
 - c. Egotist
 - d. Introvert
13. A person who believes that human actions are powerless to change an inevitable outcome is a:
- a. Fatalist
 - b. Humanist
 - c. Idealist
 - d. Rationalist
14. A person who displays extreme and unquestioning devotion to a cause, ideology, or belief is a:
- a. Pragmatist
 - b. Skeptic
 - c. Moderate
 - d. Zealot
15. A person who refuses to compromise or change their position is described as:
- a. Intransigent
 - b. Pliant
 - c. Compliant
 - d. Docile
16. A person who habitually questions or doubts accepted beliefs or claims is a:
- a. Credulist
 - b. Skeptic
 - c. Dogmatist
 - d. Fanatic

17. A person who is excessively concerned with minor rules, formalities, or academic details is a:
- a. Pedant
 - b. Polymath
 - c. Visionary
 - d. Innovator
18. A person who acts suddenly and without careful thought is described as:
- a. Methodical
 - b. Impulsive
 - c. Deliberate
 - d. Circumspect
19. A person who is generous and forgiving, particularly toward a rival or someone who has wronged them, is described as:
- a. Malevolent
 - b. Miserly
 - c. Magnanimous
 - d. Vindictive
20. A person who gives opinions on subjects outside their area of expertise is called an:
- a. Polyglot
 - b. Ultracrepidarian
 - c. Academician
 - d. Authority
21. A person who pretends to possess moral qualities or beliefs that they do not actually possess is a:
- a. Hypocrite
 - b. Benefactor
 - c. Altruist
 - d. Philanthropist
22. A person who is stubborn and refuses to change their opinion despite persuasion is described as:
- a. Pliant
 - b. Submissive
 - c. Yielding
 - d. Obstinate
23. A person who habitually expects the worst possible outcome is a:
- a. Pessimist
 - b. Realist
 - c. Optimist
 - d. Idealist
24. A person who has an excessive desire for wealth or money is described as:
- a. Generous
 - b. Charitable
 - c. Avaricious
 - d. Benevolent
25. A person who deliberately lives away from society and avoids social contact is a:
- a. Recluse
 - b. Socialite
 - c. Extrovert
 - d. Gregarious person

26. A person who is easily deceived because of excessive trust is:
- Astute
 - Shrewd
 - Skeptical
 - Gullible
27. A person who deliberately displays exaggerated or theatrical behaviour to attract attention is described as:
- Reticent
 - Histrionic
 - Demure
 - Modest
28. A person who deliberately wishes harm or evil to others is:
- Malevolent
 - Benevolent
 - Compassionate
 - Sympathetic
29. A person who approaches problems based on practical considerations rather than ideals is a:
- Visionary
 - Pragmatist
 - Idealist
 - Utopian
30. A person who habitually distrusts the sincerity or motives of others and believes that people are motivated mainly by self-interest is a:
- Altruist
 - Cynic
 - Philanthropist
 - Optimist
31. The study or collection of coins, currency, and medals is called:
- Philately
 - Epigraphy
 - Numismatics
 - Paleography
32. The scientific study of insects is called:
- Entomology
 - Etymology
 - Herpetology
 - Ornithology
33. The study and collection of postage stamps and related postal material is called:
- Numismatics
 - Philately
 - Cartography
 - Cryptography
34. The scientific study of birds is called:
- Ichthyology
 - Mammalogy
 - Ornithology
 - Mycology

35. The branch of zoology concerned with the scientific study of fish is called:
- a. Ichthyology
 - b. Malacology
 - c. Herpetology
 - d. Entomology
36. The scientific study of fungi is called:
- a. Phycology
 - b. Bryology
 - c. Dendrology
 - d. Mycology
37. The study of ancient inscriptions, especially those engraved or carved on durable materials, is called:
- a. Calligraphy
 - b. Epigraphy
 - c. Paleography
 - d. Lexicography
38. The study of ancient and historical handwriting and scripts is called:
- a. Typography
 - b. Epigraphy
 - c. Paleography
 - d. Lexicography
39. The branch of geology concerned with the study of rock layers and their arrangement is called:
- a. Mineralogy
 - b. Petrology
 - c. Stratigraphy
 - d. Seismology
40. The scientific study of earthquakes and seismic waves is called:
- a. Volcanology
 - b. Petrology
 - c. Geomorphology
 - d. Seismology
41. The branch of biology and medicine concerned with the immune system is called:
- a. Toxicology
 - b. Immunology
 - c. Pathology
 - d. Oncology
42. The branch of medicine concerned with the study and treatment of cancer is called:
- a. Toxicology
 - b. Immunology
 - c. Hematology
 - d. Oncology
43. The science of creating and analysing codes and ciphers for secure communication is called:
- a. Cryptography
 - b. Stenography
 - c. Typography
 - d. Cartography

44. The science and practice of making maps is called:
- Cryptography
 - Oceanography
 - Typography
 - Cartography
45. The statistical study of human populations, particularly their size, structure, distribution, and changes, is called:
- Demography
 - Sociology
 - Anthropology
 - Ethnology
46. The scientific study of speech sounds, including their production, transmission, and perception, is called:
- Semantics
 - Syntax
 - Phonetics
 - Etymology
47. The study of the origin and historical development of words is called:
- Phonetics
 - Semantics
 - Entomology
 - Etymology
48. The practice of compiling, writing, and editing dictionaries is called:
- Bibliography
 - Lexicography
 - Calligraphy
 - Historiography
49. The branch of zoology concerned with reptiles and amphibians is called:
- Herpetology
 - Ornithology
 - Mammalogy
 - Ethology
50. The scientific study of human beings, including their biological, cultural, and social development, is called:
- Sociology
 - Archaeology
 - Anthropology
 - Ethnography
51. The branch of medicine concerned with blood, blood-forming organs, and blood disorders is called:
- Nephrology
 - Hematology
 - Cardiology
 - Hepatology
52. The scientific study of animal behaviour, particularly in natural conditions, is called:
- Ethology
 - Ecology
 - Zoology
 - Entomology

53. The branch of science concerned with viruses and viral diseases is called:
- Bacteriology
 - Parasitology
 - Virology
 - Viralogy
54. The branch of medicine concerned with the study and treatment of diseases of the kidneys is called:
- Nephrology
 - Urology
 - Neurology
 - Gastroenterology
55. The study of the distribution, causes, and patterns of diseases and health conditions in populations is called:
- Pharmacology
 - Toxicology
 - Pathology
 - Epidemiology
56. A person who leaves their own country to settle permanently in another is called a/an:
- Immigrant
 - Expatriate
 - Emigrant
 - Refugee
57. The branch of astronomy that applies physics to understand the physical properties, composition, and behaviour of celestial objects is called:
- Astrophysics
 - Cosmology
 - Astrology
 - Aeronautics
58. The branch of astronomy concerned with the origin, evolution, and large-scale structure of the universe is called:
- Astrophysics
 - Planetology
 - Cosmology
 - Astrology
59. The study of mosses, liverworts, and hornworts is called:
- Dendrology
 - Algology
 - Bryology
 - Pomology
60. The study of trees and other woody plants is called:
- Floriculture
 - Dendrology
 - Bryology
 - Pomology