1. SEBI Overhauls Portfolio Management Rules and Streamlines Regulatory Settlements

- ❖ The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) approved comprehensive new portfolio management regulations introducing the Portfolio Manager Route for Mutual Funds (PRIM) with a minimum investment threshold of ₹25 lakh.
- ❖ The new framework allows portfolio managers to invest client funds into direct plans of mutual funds, exchange-traded funds (ETFs), and index funds, alongside allowing up to 10% exposure in unlisted debt securities.
- ❖ The regulatory board approved major overhauls to the settlement of administrative and civil proceedings, establishing revised guidelines and a new formula for computing settlement amounts.
- ❖ Under the updated settlement norms, eligible entities receive a formal pre-show-cause settlement notice providing a designated window of 60 days to apply for dispute resolution.
- ❖ The board also introduced a common advertisement code permitting celebrity endorsements for corporate brand building under strict regulatory safeguards and compliance reporting mechanisms.
